

JUDr. Petra Ditrichová Ochmannová, Ph.D., is Legal Advisor at International Law Department, Ministry of Defence of the Czech Republic where she works since 2007. She specializes in Law of Armed Conflict and legal framework and processes of NATO. She deals with all sorts of issues stemming from public international law (International treaties, MOUs, Legal aspects of deployment of troops, PMSCs, ROEs, International Human Rights Law, Detention etc.).

She is co-founder and CZE MOD expert member to the Czech Committee on Implementation of IHL and Czech Red Cross Expert Member on IHL.

From August 2017 to July 2018 she was posted in NATO Support and Procurement Agency (NSPA) in Capellen (Luxembourg) as Czech Liaison Officer. In this position she was responsible for preparing Czech position for Agency Supervisory Board meetings and meetings of the Logistics and Finance, Audit and Control Committee regarding proper oversight of the Agency. Furthermore, she was responsible for oversight and coordination of procurement activities of the CZE MOD in NSPA, and promoting Czech Industry. From January to May 2018 she also provided a partial assistance to the NSPA Legal Office.

From January 2013 to December 2014 she worked in SHAPE, Mons (Belgium) where as Deputy Legal Adviser to NATO's Allied Command Transformation Staff Element Europe pursued legal education and training for NATO Legal Community. As Editor-in-Chief of the NATO Legal Gazette she published 6 thematically focused issues (Gender, Operational Records, Proceedings from NATO Legal Conference, NATO Legal Cornerstones, NATO and EU, and Legal Issues of Cyber). In addition, she served as Deputy Officer of Primary Responsibility for NATO Legal Advisors and Operational Law courses delivered at the NATO School, Oberammergau. She also served as Secretary and national expert for the NATO Training Group Task Group developing NATO Standard on training in Rules of Engagement (STANAG 2597). From 2009 to 2012 she participated as national expert and later as national Co-chairman in the NATO working group developing NATO Standard on the training in Law of Armed Conflict (STANAG 2449).

Petra is regular speaker at national and international forums, and training events (NATO School in Oberammergau, SWEDINT in Kungsängen, LOAC course for Military LEGADs in Warsaw). For Czech Armed Forces she designed and delivered number of legal and training courses focused on International Law, LOAC, Human Rights Law, ROE, Detention, and NATO legal aspects.

She published on Private Security and Military Companies (Bakker, Sossai: Multilevel Regulation of Military and Security Contractors – The Interplay between International, European and Domestic Norms, HART Publishing, 2012; PRIV-WAR: Report on national legislation and case law), Unmanned Aerial Vehicles (CYIL Vol 2, 2011; CYIL Vol. 7, 2016), Law of Armed Conflict (Iuridica 4/2009), and NATO (NATO Legal Gazette, Leuven Manual on the International Law Applicable to Peace Operations, Cambridge University Press).

Petra holds Doctoral degree in Public International Law from Charles University, Prague, Czech Republic (thesis: Legal Regulation of Activities of Non-State Actors in Armed Conflict). She also holds a Diploma in the Introduction to English Law and the Law of the EU from the University of Cambridge.

Petra is ISMILLW BOD member since 2009. In 2015, during XX Congress of the ISMILLW held in Prague, she was elected as the President of the Committee on General Affairs.