Dear Madam,

Dear Sir,

Following the success of our six previous editions, the Belgian Group of the International Society for Military Law and the Law of War is pleased to invite you to attend the seventh ‘Silent leges inter arma?’ conference. This international conference will once again be hosted at the Grand Hotel Casselbergh in the centre of the historical city of Bruges (Belgium) and will take place from 17 through 20 September 2024.

The conference will bring together practitioners and academics active in the field of security and defence to discuss legal and policy aspects of a variety of important topics. Please find enclosed an outline of the programme. We are proud and pleased to announce that the participants will be officially welcomed by the Mayor of Bruges in the City Hall’s Gothic room, and that the opening reception will be hosted in the City Hall’s parlours. Confirmed conference speakers and chairs include Captain (Navy) Dr. Martin D. Fink, Associate Professor of Military Law at the Netherlands Defence Academy; Professor Dr. Kubo Mačák, Professor of International Law at the University of Exeter; Mariette Hughes, Service Complaints Ombudsman for the Armed Forces of the UK; Professor Dr. Vaios Koutroulis, Professor of International Law at the Université libre de Bruxelles; Emmanuel Jacob, President of EUROMIL; and Geert Baudewijns, General Director of Secutec. A detailed program will be published on the website of the International Society for Military Law and the Law of War (www.ismllw.org). The language of the Conference will be English. The conference is designed to offer ample professional networking opportunities.

The number of participants in this conference is limited to 120. Travel arrangements should therefore only be made after written confirmation of participation has been received. For practical reasons we strongly recommend that participants book their accommodation at the Grand Hotel Casselbergh, using our special hotel reservation form. Special daily room prices apply for participants in the conference: 168 euro for a standard room (even if it is occupied by two persons) (breakfast for the guest(s), VAT, free WiFi and free access to the wellness area included, but city tax of 4 euro per person and additional room and hotel services not included). Guests who wish to check out on 21 September 2024 rather than on 20 September 2024 can book the extra night in a standard room for the price of 218 euro (single occupancy) / 238 euro (double occupancy).

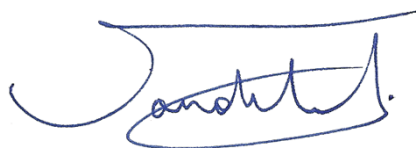

Foreign visitors to Belgium may have to apply for a visa at the appropriate Embassy or Consulate of the Kingdom of Belgium. Participants are responsible for timely application for their visa. Travel to Bruges is an individual responsibility. There are excellent train connections between Brussels Airport and the City of Bruges, and the Society's General Secretariat will be happy to advise participants on the best way to reach their destination.

The conference fee for the 'Silent Leges inter Arma?' conference covers a conference package, a social-cultural programme, as well as lunches and coffee breaks as stipulated in the program.

Application forms must be received by the General Secretariat of the International Society for Military Law and the Law of War as soon as possible and in any event no later than 15 August 2024. Together with confirmation of participation payment details will be provided. Full payment must be received no later than 19 August 2024.

The International Society for Military Law and the Law of War and its Belgian Group very much look forward to your participation in and contribution to this unique event in the heart of the UNESCO World Heritage city of Bruges.

Yours respectfully,
