Dublin, 21 January 2025

Dear Madam,
Dear Sir,

It is with great pleasure that we announce that our 14th Seminar for Legal Advisors of the Armed Forces will be hosted at the Galway Bay Hotel in Salthill, Galway (Ireland) from 20 to 23 May 2025.

The Seminar will bring together military and civilian legal advisors of armed forces and of ministries of defence, legal practitioners whose work is related to armed forces and/or coast guards, and academics involved in research and/or teaching in areas such as operational law, human rights law, and military law. There will be a diverse programme through English, featuring internationally renowned experts. Herewith you will find the outline of the Seminar programme, as well as the necessary application form. The Seminar programme will be made available on our website and, in addition, a copy will be sent to registered participants.

The deadline for sending in completed and signed application forms is 11 April 2025. However, it is important to note that places are limited, accordingly the registration process may close earlier once the quota of places available is met. Once we have received and accepted the completed application form, a confirmation of registration and an invitation to pay the applicable participation fee will be sent by e-mail. This confirmation becomes final upon payment of the participation fee.

All registered participants are recommended to book their accommodation at Galway Bay Hotel, which (subject to continued availability) will offer discounted rates for bookings until 11 April 2025: A single room will cost 165 euro (breakfast included) and a twin/double room will cost 176 euro (breakfast included). Registered participants will be informed of the dedicated email address of the Galway Bay Hotel, as well as a booking code, to enable them to book their accommodation at the hotel.

Please note that travel to and from Ireland, as well as accommodation in Galway are an individual responsibility. Furthermore, visa requirements may apply and you are advised to verify same in a timely manner.

We will be delighted to welcome participants from your country or organisation to the vibrant city of Galway, moreover, we are looking forward to an engaging international exchange of ideas on several of today's challenging legal issues.

Yours sincerely,

(Signed)

Colonel (IRL) Richard BRENNAN
Director of the Seminars
